We are authorized to announce ISAAC PAUL as a candidate for Alderman in the 7th Ward, at the ensuing election.

SAD ACCIDENT.-Last evening, about six o'clock, the body of a man by the name of BLACKMAN, was found at the base of the old bridge abutment, on the opposite side of the river, where, it is supposed, he had accidentally fallen, while in a state of intoxication. The circumstances, as related to us, are these: The unfortunate man and his son, a lad about thirteen or foorteen years of age, arrived night before last on the opposite side of the river, with a supply of marketing, where they stopped to camp for the night. The boy, being young and somewhat wearied by the it; but is maintaining its credit gallantly. It day's journey, soon returned to rest, without | don't intend to yield whilst there is a "shot knowing the movements or the whereabouts in the locker," and there happens to be more of his father, whose intention, it is supposed, of them there than it will have any need of was to walk over to the city, and in doing so. using in this war. took the wrong road, which led him to the precipice over which, in a state of intoxication, he fell upon the rugged rocks beneath. and, in all probability, was instantly killed. The little boy, on waking up in the morning, was much at loss to know what had become of his father; and, being an entire stranger and inexperienced, was unable to make any great effort at ascertaining his whereabouts, and was kept in a state of suspense during the whole day, and was only relieved by the finding of the dead body of his father at the place above named. We understand they reside in the vicinity of Mitchellsville, Tenn.

A fight which took place Thursday night, under the canvass at Bailey's Varieties, stirred up the audience considerably; and scarcely had the commotion subsided ere a cry outside renewed the commotion. A number of persons, in great trepidation, lifted the canvass and ran out to see what was the matter. In a few moments one of them poked his head back under the canvass and cried out-"No fight-only a man in the well! Sare enough a man who was going from the lot, on which the tent is hoisted, to the adjoining one, had jumped from the dividing fence into a well full sixty feet deep!---but he_had to go only fifteen feet before he found water. Happily he went down feet foremost. We don't know whether he found bottom or not,-rather think he didn't-but it is certain he found his way out, by a rop: which was let down to him. well bathed, and well satisfied with his involuntary adventure. Friend.-Dhrunk! He no dhrunk! Le him alone. I take care of him. Dhrunk! A cart coming up, the policemen took the drunken Dutchman, who was as limber as a wet rag, in their arms and pitched him in. Then laying hold of his friend, served him likewise. A momentary resistance, a kicking of the sides of the cart, and an exclamation from the persistent friend of, "He no dhrunk! Drive on!" and the parties were quietly borne to the shades to pass the evening with the city's free-laborers, who are digging the grave of the sea serpent along Church street.

KENTUCKY CITY .- The final sale of lots in this embryo city takes place on the 27th of this month. Its location is such as to give it a very fair prospect of becoming one of the largest cities in the Union, and that at no remote period. The advantages which it possesses, and which ensure this result, are much greater than any other of our cities possessed when they were laid off. Fortunes have been made by judicious investments in lots in places which had not a tithe of its advantages, and we doubt not those who purchase lots in Kentucky City will make immense profits upon their outlay of capital. For particulars of the sale, see advertisement in | cial Hotel. another column.

A NEW BUSINESS HOUSE,-Mr. HUGH MC-CREA, formerly of the firm of McCrea & Ter- latitudes. rass, and Mr. W. Hooper Harris, formerly of the firm of H. B. Morris & Co., have formed a partnership for the purpose of engaging in the wholesale grocery and commission business in this city. Both gentlemen are expericaced grocery merchants, and possess all the qualifications necessary to the successful prosecution of the business in which they have embarked. We take pleasure in commending them to the attention of the trade.

30 Our neighbors of the Union and American yesterday gave credit to their clever Local for election returns. Their Local, without doubt, understands his business well, and deserves all praise for his energy, &c. and if he did "bunt up" those returns, well and good; if he did not, but procured them from a cotemporary, then he gets credit for what he did not perform. If we are not mistaken, that tremendous labor was performed by our route agent, Mr. Gras, and went the rounds of the press.

ELECTRICAL.-We learn from a gentleman residing in Edgefield, that the Louisville and Nashville Telegraph wire was stricken by lightning, early yesterday morning, in the vicinity of the residence of J. T. S. FALL. The electricity passed along the wire for some distance, shattering three or four of the poles, and instantly killing a cow that was standing under the wire. As yet we have learned of no further damage being done.

BROWNE, the fashionable tailor, corner of the Square and Deaderick Street, has re- everybody to get cheap goods. Call soon or ceived his fall and winter supplies of gentlemen's dress goods.

ENGINE TRIAL-Washington Fire Company, No. 5, made a trial of their engine on the Public Square yesterday evening, throwing one hundred and eighty-six feet, through a 3-inch nozzle. This is probably not a fair test of her power, as the machine is entirely new, and may work better after she has been awhile in active service. She is a beautiful nachine, and we have no doubt the gallant Fives will bear her nobly in the "thickest of the fight" when occasion presents.

A couple of boys, about 10 or 12 years of age, got into a fight on Deaderick street, yesterday evening; and a parcel of men stood by and saw them worrying each other without interfering. "Oh, shame, where is thy blush?" A gentleman passing along put a stop to the degrading exhibition.

Nothing else does me any Good. LANCASTER C. H., S. C., May, 1856.

Jackson, Philadelphia:-Dear Sir:-1 have been afflicted with Dyspepsia for a number of years, and until three years since I could find nothing which would afford me relief. Fortunately, for me, I heard of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, and thought I would try them, not however, with much faith that I should be benefitted by their use. To my surprise I found that on taking a few doses I was relieved of the pain in my side and chest, my apif I can obtain them, for nothing else does me any good I am willing at all times and ready to state my case to any one who may wish to know the full particulars and shall with pleasure recommend them to all who may be affected with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, will be relieved by Hoofland's German Bitters. Many persons in this district have used the Bitters with neficial results, and I have no doubt you could get number of certificates were you to ask them, for to my certain knowledge quite a number have been very ich benefitted by the use of your medicine. I almost forgot to mention that my daughter, about six years of age, was cured of Japandice by Hoofland's German Bitters. I think best to mention his, as I
